My dear Helen:

I was of the opinion that I sent you my new address but if you say that I did not I guess you are right. Sorry teached for I ~~were~~ did not mean it. Anfully good of you to answer to old anyway.

To-morrow is the big day at school for us as we take our final written exams then. Wednesday the best practical man is chosen and the two best men are chosen to act as instructors. We're all hoping that we're not shipped back to Edgewood

Arsenal. Indications, however, point to that place or Hastings on the Hudson. Were I given a choice it would be "Over There."

Noticed where Midd
was to play R.P.I last Satur day but as yet have been unable to get an account of the game. You must let me know the full particulars
teacher for you must know that I'm interested. Only a few minutes ago I was standing in my old accus
omed crouching position
at left half mittening signals to myself and oh!
just a wishful. Don't think I crazy I tell you but if you could only appreciate how

I'm longing for some action. Like Spring fever so Football weather. Just naturally gets in the blood and I abounded with Pep.

I think I could play some Worcester Academy football this year or in other words real honest to goodness football.

"Flu" is still wrecking havoc in the Army and elsewhere from all accounts. I sure hope you all don't contract it. Hiley. We think perhaps "Flu" will give us an enforced furlough as we understand they are not allowing any one to enter or leave posts.

So you all are sure you know who old Deke is rushing? Strange isn't it how observing some people are? I'll grant you though teacher we never were for underhanded work. Pi Phi and S.K.E. are noted for their honorable dealings though I know of two girls who came to Midd this year with Pi Phi pledges tucked out of sight.

Teacher, Did you ever find out what Brick Cowles knew about you? If not perhaps I'll tell you. Perhaps Old Brick is at Camp Mead.

Well I'll leave well alone now and start studying for the grand finale. Wish me luck! I certainly do you all! How do the children behave teacher? Oh! but I'll just let you're strict with them.

Will be sure to let you know my next change and until then Newark D.J. is where I hang my uniform.

Always
Brailey
